Enameling Studio

⑤ ⑥ ⑦ ⑧ ⑨ ⑩ ⑪ ⑫

July 29 - August 2, 1:00 - 4:00 pm

Barbara Maloney, Independent Educator

This is a very rewarding, quick, and fun class! Enameling is a fast-paced art form that allows you to enjoy the beauty of glass without the ramping up and down time. It only takes two minutes or less to finish firing your pieces. This allows you to see how the piece looks immediately and, if you are unhappy with the result, make changes to the piece for re-firing! In this workshop, participants will learn the art of fusing glass, in the form of enamel, to metal. We will use copper disks and rectangles as our bases and a variety of opaque and transparent enamels for our designs. Types of metals and enamels, proper preparation of metals, kiln use, and safety will all be covered. You will learn basic sifting, with and without stencils, and sgraffito. Each participant will make 1-3 pieces during the class. The price of the class includes all material fees. $195

Step Up to 9th Grade ⑨

July 29 – August 2, 1:00 - 4:00 pm

Tina Harper, TVS Academic Services Coordinator (grades 5-12)

Increase your student's academic confidence as he/she transitions from Middle School to Upper School. Camp participants will work with Tina Harper, Academic Services Coordinator for grades 5-12. Ms. Harper will use the ninth-grade summer reading assignment as a vehicle to teach executive functioning and study skills students will use regularly in their ninth-grade classes. Students will spend the week engaged in enrichment activities to introduce and practice:

1. Short- and long-term planning with an agenda
2. Taking notes from nonfiction reading
3. Annotating texts (fiction and nonfiction)
4. Clarifying assignment expectations
5. Effectively answering open-ended questions
6. Study strategies for quizzes and tests
7. Communicating effectively with teachers and peers

As an added benefit, students should end the week proud of the quality of their first assignment for ninth grade, their summer reading. Prepared students will bring to class: the summer reading text (previously read), an agenda, paper, pen, pencil, and highlighter. $160
